3. Dr E S Metcalfe
4. Dr Coleman
5. Messrs McAlpine & ~~Macintosh~~

The privilege ~~leave~~ of long leave etc

Note.

The question of the inclusion of Mr Rollo's name in Appendix I of the M.S.R. to entitle him to some special concessions came up for consideration in October 1924 when the Rep. Mysore wrote forwarded for orders a copy of letter No 617 dt 23.9.24 from Mr Rollo. The latter officer stated that he alone of the Europeans in the Educational Service had been omitted from the list and that this perhaps due to his not having applied ~~so~~ ~~was decided not to apply~~ for the same as he was unaware ~~not being aware~~ of the provision and, therefore, requested that his name might be included in the list when the matter was ~~considered in Council~~ referred to the then Finl Sec (present first member of Council) he was pleased to record as follows: —

The matter was considered in Council and Mr Rollo was informed thro the Rep. Mysore Govt in letter flag C

Mr Rollo has again applied for being included in the list the chief reasons given by him for applying for the concession ~~for the grant~~ are that four of the officers were placed in the list five years after he joined the Service, and that his name is the only officers who has been omitted. He also states that ~~and that~~ his addl work as magistrate and Secy to the voluntary unofficial Students' Info Bureau ~~should not be~~ might be considered as an addl reason for his not ~~thought an addl reason for his not~~ being placed in a less advantageous ~~being placed in a less advantageous~~ position

My dear Sir,

I am directed to return the accompanying file and to say that His Highness has decided to give the benefit of the special leave Rules for European services to Messrs. Sparkes and Sell and also to Mr. Slater of the Geological Department. The concession will not entail very great expense to Government and from the point of view of a considerate Employer these Rules are almost a necessity in the case of gentlemen of European birth serving in India and obliged to educate their children in Europe. In Mr. Sell's case for instance, whatever may be his merits as an Educational Officer, it is a cruel hardship that he should be allowed only 2 years furlough during his whole service.

Yours sincerely,

I think so. The phrase "and also to Mr Slater" in Mr Campbell's D.O. seems deliberate. M. 12/8/12

SIR,

I believe it is not the intention of Government that I should be deprived of Rs.166-10-8 a month but I trust, that for want of a reference, my name did not find a place in the Appendix. As the list includes nearly all officers junior to me in the service I am at a loss to know why my name should be omitted.

2. Under the above circumstances I beg that Government may be moved to include my name in the list referred to and allow me to draw the difference of the rates for the period of the furlough granted to me in the Notification referred to above.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Enclosure to SL 29. F 1451 15

To

His Highness the Maharaja

Sri Krishna Rajendra Wadeyar Bahadur,

G.C.S.I.,

MAHARAJA OF MYSORE,

THE MEMORIAL OF MR. F. R. SELL, M.A. (OXON.), PROFESSOR OF ENGLISH IN THE CENTRAL COLLEGE, BANGALORE.

May it please Your Highness to peruse and consider this memorial setting forth the details of the hard case in which Your Highness' memorialist finds himself in the matter of furlough rules.

2. When in July, 1910, he ascertained that a special Government Order was necessary in the case of each officer who desired to enjoy the benefit of the furlough rules as set forth in Chapter XIV of the Mysore Service Regulations, he approached the late Mr. Weir, Inspector-General of Education, and sent in to Your Highness' Government a request backed by Mr. Weir's strong recommendation to grant him the privilege of the furlough rules of Chapter XIV, which all the European officers of the Educational Service were enjoying at the time when he was appointed to it in October, 1904. Your Highness' memorialist was appointed to the Educational Service under the régime of the late Dewan Sir P. N. Krishnamurthi, K.C.I.E., on the strong recommendation of Mr. Cook, then Principal of the Central College, and of Dr. Duncan, a former Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

3. Mr. Weir anticipated a favourable reply, as the European officers senior to Your Highness' memorialist had been granted the favour, and the officers appointed since he joined the service in 1904, namely Messrs. McCombe and Metcalfe had been granted the furlough rules of the Madras Educational Service or others similar to them.

4. Your Highness' Government replied to Mr. Weir's request by Government Order, $\frac{\text{No. 8145-6}}{\text{Edn. 57-10-2}}$, dated April 1, 1911, that they did not see sufficient reason to sanction the recommendation. Since the two officers junior to Your Highness' memorialist in length of service appointed in 1908 enjoy furlough rules similar to those of Chapter XIV (the case of Mr. Usher is set aside, because he is under a special agreement for a term of five years), this reply leaves him in the peculiar position of being the one European officer of the Mysore Educational Service, who is under the older rules as set forth in Chapter XIII of the Mysore Service Regulations.

5. These rules grant Your Highness' memorialist a maximum furlough of two years in a service of thirty; the first year after ten years' and the second after eighteen years' service. To a married man this often means long separation from his wife and family. There are also greater possibilities of a break-down in health. One advantage to an educational officer of furlough under the rules of Chapter XIV is that in his own university he can get into touch with the best scholarship of the day and with the constantly improving methods of teaching, and thus come back to his work fresh and vigorous in mind and body.
